

CUSTOM-MADE DRAIN BOX STRAINERS

Avarus Valves custom-made Drain Box Strainers can be manufactured to suit individual applications and are available in various grades of materials that offer excellent corrosion resistance in corrosive environments. Material testing and certification can also be supplied to individual project or client requirements.

Features

- Various materials of construction.
- Various sizes.
- Various element perforation sizes.
- Made to client requirement.
- Material testing available.

Application

- Can be manufactured for various fluids, working pressures and operating temperatures.

Materials of construction available are:
Super Duplex, Duplex, Stainless steels, Inconel, Monel, Aluminium Bronze, Titanium and other materials.

Various material testing is available to Norsok and other standards if required.